Hadih Binche Community Members,

Open letter to Binche Whut'en community

We would like to provide an update to community members regarding changes within Chief and Council.

Effective immediately, two members of Council are no longer serving in their roles with Binche Whut'en.

Chief and Council remain committed to ensuring continuity of governance and continuing to provide services and support to community members without interruption. Updates will be communicated to the community through the appropriate channels to ensure everyone remains informed.

The focus remains on moving forward in a respectful and positive manner, maintaining stability, and working in the best interests of the community.

Musi for your continued support, understanding, and commitment to the well-being of the community.

Chief Anthony Jopse

Councillor Sebastian Anatole

Councillor Dale Hallman

Councillor Corbin Tom
